Weingut Prager is a winery dating back to 1302 that produces terroir driven wines. These wines showcase a variety of differences amongst small vineyard sites as seen on the map below. Federspiel and Smaragd define the ripeness levels of the two grapes that embody these dry wines.

"Each of the vineyards ranged side by side in the Wachau may be described as a great soloist, and together they make up a grand orchestra." – Toni Bodenstern

We invite you to experience the stunningly complex and cerebral Montepulciano d’Abruzzo wines of Emidio Pepe. Practicing viticultural philosophies unchanged since 1964, Pepe’s grapes are grown biodynamically, hand-harvested, hand-destemmed, and naturally fermented.
